Description/Remarks

This is a 2.5-story single-family residence in the Craftsman style built in 1911. The building is rectangular in plan. The structural system is masonry. The foundation is poured concrete. Exterior walls are original stucco. The building has a cross gable roof clad in replacement asphalt shingles and brackets. There is one side left, exterior, brick and stucco chimney. Windows are original wood, 4/1 casements. Also 6-light wood casements and 4-over-1 replacement wood double-hung windows. There is a single-story, partial-width open porch characterized by a gabled roof clad in asphalt shingles with square stuccoed posts on geometric pattern stuccoed piers. Side entry on side street. The house has exposed elbow brackets. On the second floor are one-over-one windows.
