Description/Remarks

This is a 1.5-story single-family residence in the Craftsman style built in 1919. The structural system is masonry. The foundation is raised. Exterior walls are original brick. The building has a medium front gable roof clad in replacement asphalt shingles with raked open cornice and one gabled dormer. There is offset left, side slope, parged brick flue. Windows are original wood, vertical 3-light casements. There is a single-story, single-bay platform/stoop characterized by a hip roof clad in asphalt shingles. The front facing end of this house is distinguished by the integrated arched and hip roof over the stoop. The house is also characterized by the polygonal extrusion on its side.
